

Galen Emanuele Program:

Reframing Culture & Leadership When it Matters Most

Virtual Session:

Description: Galen will reframe how franchise leaders can show up for their people and shine at times when it matters most, and beyond. He'll dive into ways leaders can support and prioritize employee experience, ensuring that their teams thrive. He will also share tools around skillfully creating a culture of feedback and constant improvement, as well as a step by step process to establish a clearly defined, intentional culture.

Learning objectives:

- Providing a leadership presence of stability and security to help your team thrive through challenging times.
- Mindsets and a model for creating a culture of feedback and constant improvement.
- Galen's "Clarity, Commitment, Consistency" step by step approach for creating a living breathing culture.